MEMORANDUM FOR: Brigadier General Brent Scowcroft
Deputy Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs

SUBJECT : Foreign Reaction to the Watergate
Developments

1. The official reaction abroad to these developments has, not surprisingly, been scarce. Most foreign leaders have declined to comment and are keeping their thoughts on it very much to themselves. They are undoubtedly following it carefully but withholding decisions until they are more confident of its implications.

2. In contrast to the guarded official reaction, media coverage, especially in Europe, has been extensive. The attached paper, prepared by the Foreign Broadcast Information Service, reviews this coverage.

3. No other distribution is being made of this paper.

Extract from ADDI's Notes on Morning Meeting of 8 July 1971:

It was also announced that Howard Hunt has been named security consultant to the White House. General Cushman told Ehrlichman that Mr. Hunt would have full cooperation from CIA.
